

Employees may not supervise their own children while engaged in employment activities unless the child is directly involved with the activity (ie. teaching or child -of- age for sports or activity).

Employees are not to take their own children on school sponsored trips or in school vehicles unless the child is involved in the activity.

Building principals will deal with employees who violate this policy using methods consistent with employment practices.

ϕ ϕ ϕ ϕ ϕ ϕ ϕ

ADOPTED: July 20, 2005

AMENDED: